January 8 – “The Rainmaker”

(Rated PG–13, Runtime: 135 mins; Crime, Drama)

Rudy Baylor is a jobless young attorney. However, he is also the only hope for an elderly couple whose insurance company will not pay for an operation that could save their son’s life. In this judicial drama, Rudy learns to hate corporate America as he falls in love with a battered young married woman. Will he be up to the task? (Starring: Matt Damon, Danny DeVito, Claire Danes)

January 15 – “The Hustler”

(Rated NR, Runtime: 134 mins; Drama, Sport)

“Fast” Eddie Felson is a small time pool hustler with a lot of talent but a self destructive attitude. His bravado causes him to challenge the legendary “Minnesota Fats” to a high-stakes match, but he loses in a heartbreaking marathon. Now broke and without his long time manager, Felson faces an uphill battle to regain his confidence and his game.

(Starring: Paul Newman, Jackie Gleason, Piper Laurie)

January 22 – “The Pianist”

(Rated R, Runtime:150 mins; Biography, Drama, Music)

In this adaptation of the autobiography “The Pianist: The Extraordinary True Story of One Man’s Survival in Warsaw, 1939-1945,” Wladyslaw Szpilman, a Polish Jewish radio station pianist, sees Warsaw change gradually as World War II begins. Szpilman is forced into the Warsaw Ghetto, but later is separated from his family during operation Reinhard.

(Starring: Adrien Brody, Thomas Kretschmann, Frank Finlay)

January 29 – “Up in the Air”

(Rated R, Runtime:120 mins; Drama, Romance)

Ryan Bingham enjoys living out of a suitcase for his job traveling around the country firing people, but finds that lifestyle threatened by the presence of a potential love interest and new hire.

(Starring: George Clooney, Vera Farmiga, Anna Kendrick)
