

You're at the heart of all we do.

Many people choose to leave a charity in their will as a way to support causes that have been important in their life.

Your support of a vibrant community for your children and grandchildren can continue long after you're gone when you remember the Sabes JCC while planning your estate or writing your will.

Please ask your attorney or financial planner about planned giving. Your simple act will help you leave a legacy of hope that will provide for our community for years to come. By making a planned gift through your will or estate plan to the Sabes JCC, you are extending your commitment to the future generations of our community.
