

JCC gallery mounts two exhibits

The Tychman Shapiro Gallery at the Sabes JCC has announced two upcoming exhibits. Both will open Dec. 14 at the JCC, 4330 Cedar Lake Rd. S., St. Louis Park.

3rd Generation Project: The Art of Business will feature four local Jewish family-owned businesses spanning three or more generations, including American Drapery Systems, Inc., Cedar Box Company, Ernest I. Fink Agency, and Ribnick Fur and Leather.

Steven Cohen

Ribnick Fur and Leather is one of the Jewish family-owned businesses featured in 3rd Generation Project: The Art of Business, which will open Dec. 14.

An exhibit reception will take place 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 15.

Documented through photography by Steven Cohen and written interviews by Josh Awend, this exhibit captures the generations at work. Each family has its unique story to share.

On concurrent display in the Sabes JCC's Shared Walls Exhibition Areas will be works by Israeli illustrator Hanoah Piven. Piven will lead a workshop for all ages and offer a lecture on Sunday, Jan. 18 at the JCC.

Planned in conjunction with the 2015 Twin Cities Jewish Humor Festival, the exhibit will feature Piven's colorful mixed media and witty celebrity caricatures. Piven's illustrated compositions are assembled from common objects and scraps of materials.

For information and tickets to the Piven events, call 952-381-3499, e-mail: tickets@sabesjcc.org or visit: www.sabesjcc.org.
