ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

The Twin Cities Jewish Film Festival, began in the late 1990s with the screening of three films to a group of passionate and committed film enthusiasts. Fast forward and here we are – celebrating 25 years of bringing the Twin Cities some of the best feature films, documentaries, and shorts from around the world on themes of Jewish culture and identity.

We now operate in partnership with the Twin Cities Film Festival, expanding our offerings and our outreach into the greater Twin Cities community. Designed to build bridges, entertain, and create dialogue, the Festival offers a universal medium through which Jewish history, traditions, political viewpoints, the arts, and personal relationships can all be viewed with the goal of experiencing life from another angle.

The funds raised through sponsorship and ticket sales support the festival and enable us to engage the community in the exploration of Jewish identity and culture through film, performance, theater, visual arts, literature and learning.
